

As a consumer I do not want Wisconsin's No Call List weakened! We have fought for a long time to get this harassment stopped and it is finally working. When consumers are no longer customers, we have a right in determining if we want those companies to call anymore. Therefore leave as it is!